HOME CIRCLE

CHOCIE READING FOR THE ENTIRE FAMILY---REFLET!

The hardest wound to heal is the one inflicted by a friend.

The world is a bad world only for those who have bad hearts.

We never realize how much we are capable of doing until the test comes.

The love that never speaks until it does it on a grave stone, keeps still too long.

A good rule for your happiness is to add to your sum of conten-ment, subtract from your amount of desires, multiply your quantity of religion, and divide your percentage by love.

Unkind words do as much harm as unkind deeds; many a heart has been wounded beyond cure by words; many a reputation has been stabbed to death by a few little words. They have parted families, parted husbands and wives, and broken the ties between the dearest friends.

The way to get the best their is in people, is to give them your best. Don't expect others to be sweet and polite, and thoughtful, so long as you adhere to the selfish principle that people must "take you as they find you." When your friends begin to grow careless and disrespectful, stop and think whether you are not getting back a reflection of yourself.

While we do not believe in woman with capital W, we also do not believe in man with a capital M.
In all things that pertain to home-keeping the woman should stand supreme. Thus was she ordained by nature. In all things pertaining to home-supporting the man should stand supreme, for thus was he ordained by nature.

Storms and clouds and rain are essential, but when they pass away the bloom of flowers seem more beautiful, and the song of birds more sweet. "Into each life rain must fall, some days must be dark and dreary." God in His wisdom designed that there should be night as well as day; that there should be shadows as well as sunlight. Did you ever listen to the song of the lark as came the rainbow laid with crimson and with gold?
And then did you not pause and think, as the soul drank in the melody, as the eyes rested upon the over hanging beauty, that without the rain, storm and clouds that preceded such a realization would never have swept into your being?

THE ANGEL OF THE HOME

She does not make any fuss about it, nor ask to have a reporter at her elbow. But her sunny heart of self-forgetting love will not let her hands be at rest while there is any bit of helpful service she can render.
If she can without observation slip the burnt roll of undercrust on her plate it is done. If some one must stay at home when there is a day's outing, she tells with music in every tone, how glad she will be to be left quietly behind and have time all to herself to do ever so many things she has in mind. And none suspect from word or tone how great the sacrifice to give up the pleasure.

Her quick eye detects the oversight or neglect on the part of another, and she quickly hastens to remedy the matter, careful that none shall know her hand has made up another's failure. Is a harsh round of judgment started by some ill-advised criticism? She defly and tenderly drops the sweetest possible word for the criticized one, and switches the conversation to other topics.

Do we not all recognize this "angel?" We call her mother, wife, sister. In the glory-land they will call her saint.

SONG IN THE NIGHT.

Very many of the sweetest joys of Christain hearts are songs which have been learned in the bitterness of trial. It is said of a little bird that he will never learn to sing the song his master will have him sing while it is light in his cage. He learns a snatch of every song he hears, but will not learn a full separate melody of his own. And the master covers the cage and makes it dark all about the bird, and then he listens and learns the one song that is taught him, until his heart is full of it. Then ever after, he sings the song in the light. With many of us it is as with the bird. The Master has a song he wants to teach us, but we learn only a strain of it, a note here and there, while we catch up snatches of the world's song and sing them with it. Then he comes and makes it dark about us, till we learn the sweet melody he would teach us. Many of the loveliest songs of peace and trust sung by God's children in the world have been taught in the darkened chamber of sorrow.

JUST A WORD TO PARENTS.

The parent that does not constantly and impressively remind his children of the importance of growing up in obedience to the laws of the country is not doing his whole duty as a parent. No word from anyone else makes as lasting impressions on a child as those that fall from parental lips. After manhood and womanhood stares them in the face, after perplexities begin to settle upon them their minds will revert back to the days when a father's counsel and a mother's prayers fell upon their infantile ears, and it will to a great extent direct their foot-steps.

Dear parents and readers, do not fail to impress the right upon the minds of your children and friends! Remember that "words fily spoken are like apples of gold in pictures of silver." Blessed is the boy or girl that is possessed of judicious parents and fear-is the fate of those who have none or worse than none.

A Little Letter

Hello Editor:
This is my first time among you but I hope you will receive me. I wish to join the children's corner of the Eagle. I have for a long time thought of joining but on account of my being unable I have stayed out.
I just thought about what to do this morning when was glancing over an Eagle of last week and my brother being a photographer I had him to make my picture right then. Now I will not say much about how I look as you can see the picture but will say I believe it would be real nice if all the cousins would send their picture when joining the children's club, although don't mean to say that my picture is nice at all for it isn't. If this letter escapes the waste basket I will write again soon. Will tell about our beans and corn next time. So cheer up cousins and help the noble Bird and I am sure it will help us.

Your Friend,
Mary E Hartt.
Colly Ky.

Colson

Big Jimmer Collins, passed through here to day.

R. E. Boatright of Knott-co called to see us.

Mrs. M. M. Cress, has been visiting friends at this place.

Eld. Joseph Craft of Colson, preached an interesting sermon at the Beaverbam school house, last Sunday.

A number of teachers of the W.C.T.U. school, of Hindman Ky., passed through here on their way to Whitesburg and other points, where they will spend a few weeks, then return to Hindman.

Last Sunday morning the death angel visited the home of William Niece and took from them their beloved mother, Katherine Niece.
She was the wife of old uncle Samuel Niece who has been dead a number of years. She was very old and helpless. Many friends are left to mourn their loss.

A Friend.

MIS-TRIAL

The Halcomb Case
Ends Without a Verdict

Perhaps the hardest fought legal battle ever waged in Letcher County's little Capitol ended Saturday morning when the jury in the W.R. Halcomb case reported that they could not agree on a verdict. However but little surprise was manifested as it was generly believed that such would be the result. The jury was dismissed, the defendant Halcomb executed bond and the case set for September term of the Letcher Circuit Court. It is needless to state that the Halcomb case was one which was brought here on a change of venue from Harlan County. Hal-comb is accused of killing Isaac Huff near W W Cornett's store on Poor Fork in the upper edge of Harlan County. Both parties are highly connected.

Floyd Frazier Sentenced

Last Saturday morning Floyd Frazier convicted to the death sentence for the murder of Mrs.
Ellen Flanary at the term of Circuit Court, was brought into the court house and sentenced to be hanged on July 9th of this year. However it is not by any means probable that Frazier will be hanged at the above time as an appeal to the higher court will be made and it will likely be November before the court of appeals acts. If it should affirm the verdict rendered here then a respite of thirty, sixty or ninety days which would throw the execution up in the year 1910.
Frazier will be held in jail at this place pending action on his case.

Kills Aged Wife

Harlan county man uses a shot-gun on his life-mate

Again the good citizens of Harlan County are shocked by another tragedy. This time it an old man almost seventy years of age killing his life mate, his own wife and that too over a very trivial matter. James Brock and his wife had been quarreling on that particular morning over a quarter's worth of coffee which she had bought with her husband's money the day before. In the quarrel they actually came to blows and Mrs. Brock rushed from the house. Brock grabbed a shot-gun and fired on her the charge striking her in the side inflicting a wound from which she died in about two hours.
Brock fled from the scene but was arrested the next day and lodged in jail. Two of their grand-children witnessed the killing.

Disastrous Wind

Sweeps the entire South.

During the past week the entire country has been swept by disastrous wind storms in which a great amount of property was destroyed. More than two hundred lives are reported to have been lost. Many towns in Kentucky were wrecked, though but few fatalities are reported. Cincinnati seems to have received the severest blow of any of the largest cities.

PURE water, personal cleanliness, good ventilation, these are natural enemies to disease.

The Editor's Dog

By Eddo

We are not in the habit of interviewing people nor trying to quote verbatim the words of another, but the editor of this paper has been using great gusto in telling us his experience in getting him a dog. The following is about the way he gets it off:

"It was like this," explained the editor. "Everybody knew I wanted a dog. I have five children and I take it that every one of them ought to own a dog or a stipulated interest in one, and so I told my friends I pined for a bow-wow. Nobody seemed to pay any attention to my wants until Attorney ——— phoned me to come over to his house. 'Say,' said the lawyer, via the telephone, 'come over and get your dog!'

'Is it a good dog?' I questioned wearily.

'Well, I guess yes!' replied my man, 'its a great-grandfather—er, I mean a great-grandson of His Highness' dog of Yew that won the world's fair fly from Chicago to San—no I do not mean the world's fair fly, I mean the world's—well, anyhow come over and get your dog!'

"So I went over," continued the editor, "with my heart going pit-a-pat and with visions of fullblood Boston terriers and Blen-heims chasing their tails through my imagination. When I got over there the lawyer led me around to the back stoop and there was the oneriest looking Great Dane I ever saw, eating out of a tub and evilly watching us with the white of his eye.

"Lord," said I, "I don't need a cow in the family. Why I couldn't feed a dog like that!
What I want is a nice, quiet, small dog for the children to play with."

"Say," said the lawyer, 'you don't know a good dog when you see it, and besides, he is awfully fond of children!'

"He was, too," said the editor as he gouged into his long hair with the sharpened end of his pencil, for he almost ate up the baby the first time he got loose.

"Well, I took the dog over to our house that night and tied him to the center post in the closet. My wife and the children had gone to bed and I was counting sleep fast when all at once I heard an awful racket in my home, and the house began to rock. My wife sat upright, I bolted for the closet. There was no light in there and the first thing I knew sprawled over the dog. He bolted for the bedrooms and I caught him by the tail just as he was entering the door. In the wrestling match that followed the dog stepped on my corn with a foot as big as a ham, tore my night-shirt from Alpha to Omega and made a wreck of me in general.

"Finally I got the dog out of the room and fastened him up in the coal-house. Aside from eating two bushels of coal he did no further damage that night.

Next morning bright and early I got the children up to see their new dog. My children are of the stairstep age. The youngest is a toddler, the second one a step above and the third and on up you know. They all lined up expectantly, awaiting the coming of 'Roger and I.' When the dog saw the children he made a dash for them and struck the youngest like a catapult.
The youngest struck the next eldest she struck the next one and so until they all went down in a heap the dog on top. The madam of the house fainted then and there. I, like a brave Napoleon, waded into the combat to conquer or to die, and soon had them separated. I shut my offspring up in the house and put the dog back in the closet. Then I dashed to the telephone to consult a lawyer as to damages. 'How much did you pay for the dog?' came in thunder claps into my ear. 'He's a gift,' I pitifully squeaked. 'Then hush up about damages,' echoed back the lawyer. I dropped the receiver and leaned my head upon the bed-post near by and snubbed. It looked like our little world was wrecked on account of that dog!

Another thought struck me. I phoned for 'Red Nosed Pete' to come up to my house at once.
He soon walked in and I said, 'Pete, I am getting generous hearted in the extreme. I have decided to make you a present of all this second hand clothing' these shoes, this good hat a silver dollar and a full-blooded dog thoroughly housebroken and in all things up to date.' Pete actually thanked me, bundled up the household goods, hiked up the dog, and as he passed through the front gate my very being bounded with joy.

Sometime somebody may hand me a lemon, but I'll bet there isn't a man on earth, lawyer or whatnot, that can give me another dog."

A Little Letter

Dear Editor: Will you permit me to have a little place in the children's corner? I have been absent from home for some time going to school, I attended the college at Hindman three months.
I was in the sixth grade. I came home Friday. The little letters get better all the time. So all of wake up and write some good interesting letters.

Your Little Friend,
Nannie Bently.

EDITORIAL.

INDUSTRIAL EDITION.

EVERY man who has the upbuilding of Letcher County at heart will contribute something toward the Big Industrial Edition of the Mountain Eagle. Every man who has an interest in these entire mountains will help some too. As soon as enough contributions are received to enable her to lift her wings her mouth will open wide and Eive Thousand strong! Its purpose is to put our county and our end of the state together with our people with all their undeveloped wealth right before the rest of the world. Our principal source of revenue is through development and trade and to fix the gaze of financiers on this country is the great and only object of this extra Edition. What do you contribute toward this laudable venture?

HARLAN COUNTY.

WE have often remarked and we hope to be able to remark it many times more that, upon the whole, the best people in the world are born and bred in the mountains. We have often enumerated our reasons for saying so, but in this short article we shall not. Our only object in writing this is to call attention to the fact that no people were ever so good and careful that they could not be better or more careful. Over in Harlan county, one of the best counties in the state, accounts of horrible crimes are constantly reaching our ears and some of us are wondering what can be the matter with our brother mountaineers. In the light and wisdom of this twentieth century surely such reports as we hear cannot be true. If correct something is wrong. A screw is loose somewhere. Is it on account of the neglect to enforce the laws? If so, let the people arouse in their might now. A great majority of the citizens of Harlan county are in favor of law and order and can put a stop to it. For the sake of your sister, Letcher county, do something! Your reputation abroad is worth something.

THE LOCAL NEWSPAPER.

WHAT the local newspaper is and what it is not, it seems, is a matter that will never be understood by all persons. Most people, however, do not stop to think what the local newspaper must be or be nothing. The fact is there are people who do not arrive at conclusions about anything. Now we may be wrong as to what it takes to make a local newspaper but when we find out that we are wrong this sheet will be different or quit business. The editor that attempts to make a local newspaper without knowing the nature, sentiments or feelings of his would-be constituents will make a disastrous failure. The fact is, the paper that does not represent the fancies, the notions, sentiments, opinions, all these being correct or otherwise, will soon come to ruin. The editor of a local newspaper does many things that numbers of his readers do not approve but he generally goes on believing that he alone knows what it takes to make his business grow. For instance, the little bits of foolish things, so called, that are written from a country postoffice and published. He gets a few kicks on that account, but he knows. Something scandalous or sensational takes place in the neighborhood, the paper comes out, its columns are hunted down, but nay. The editor knows. In fact and in fine, the local newspaper is distinct and altogether different from any other publication in the world. It is the most popular of all publications and as long as the human family retains its local and fraternal blood the clean, sensible local publication is bound to hold this prestige. Why? Because it is within itself the sentiment, the sense, the brain and the everything else of the people themselves. "It weeps with those who weep and mourns with those who mourn." It is a photograph of the town and county that produces it and from which it draws its life blood. Unless it is all the above it is a stranger in a strange land and the quicker it turns its toes to the daisies the better it will be for those from whom it draws its breath.

Banks Flashes.

The people are very busy planting corn and large crops will be put out this year in this section. John Campbell's wife is very sick this week. A car ran over Willie Bush's leg but it is getting all right now. B. F. and Willie Holbrook started to Bristol, Tenn., last Monday morning where they will buy goods. They were talking of going to other markets in our state before they return. The old Dummy is carrying out lots of big logs. J. G. Stamper had a log rolling and quilting Tuesday. The old Eagle flies over our section every week and brings us tidings of great joy.

NEW EXCUSE FOR SLOWNESS.

Al Fiss was out on the Central Branch last week and says he never saw such sunflowers.

"When the wind blows they lean across the track. Pushing them back is what makes the trains lose so much time. When the wind is not blowing they droop over the track on both sides, and this also impedes the trains. In some places it is just like going through a tunnel.

"Mamma," said little Bessie, at table one noon, "I'm to write something to read in school next Friday, but I've forgotten what the teacher called it."

"An essay, perhaps," suggested Bessie's father.

"An oration," offered the little maid's high school brother, teasingly.

"A valedictory," prompted a senior sister.

"No," said Bessie, suddenly brightening. "I remember now what it is—it's an imposition."

YES, BUT—

"Is it true, doctor," asked the summer girl, "that eating cucumbers will remove freckles?"

"Of course," replied Dr. Kidder, "under certain circumstances."

"Really! What circumstances?"

"Well, provided the freckles are on the cucumbers."

RUGGED DIPLOMACY.

"I am afraid you are an advocate of shirt sleeve diplomacy."

"No, sir," answered the Venezuelan official. "I don't approve of such luxuries as shirts. I believe in going into the ring stripped to the waist."

THE INGREDIENTS.

Its A Top Notch Doer.

Great deeds compel regard. The world crowns its doers. That's why the American people have crowned Dr. King's New Discovery the King of Throat and Lung remedies. Every atom is a health force. It kills germs, and colds and la grippe vanish. It heals cough-racked membranes and coughing stops. Sore, inflamed bronchial tubes and lungs are cured and hemorrhages cease. Dr. Geo. More, Black Jack, N. C., writes "it cured me of lung trouble, pronounced hopeless by all doctors." 50c, $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Whitesburg Drug Store.

The Bed-Rock Of Success.

lies in a keen, clear brain, backed by indomitable will and resistless energy. Such power comes from the splendid health that Dr. King's New Life Pills impart. They vitalize every organ and build up brain and body. J. A. Harmon, Lizabeth, W. Va., writes: "They are the best pills I ever used." 25c. at Whitesburg Drug Store.

Very Serious

It is a very serious matter to ask for one medicine and have the wrong one given you. For this reason we urge you in buying to be careful to get the genuine—

THE FORD'S BLACK-DRAUGHT Liver Medicine

The reputation of this old, reliable medicine, for constipation, indigestion and liver trouble, is firmly established. It does not irritate other medicines. It is better than others, or it would not be the favorite liver powder, with a larger sale than all others combined.

LOCALS

BREEZY BITS BUNCHED

It was May come in like a lion this time.

The health of the country right at the present is better than usual.

Maj. John A. Webb left for Louisville Monday where he will sojourn a few days.

Ben McIntire a prospective candidate for Sheriff was in town the first of the week.

Eld Fryman preached at the M.E. Church Saturday night Sunday and Sunday night.

Hon. Ira Fields left Sunday morning for Hyden where he will attend circuit court.

Candidates are invited to consult the Eagle when they are ready to announce their running.

We will report the important acts of the Fiscal Court in next week's issue.

The weather has quieted down in the past few days and it now looks like real spring.

Those Harlanites were every one good fellows, especially those who subscribed for the Eagle.

A practice Ball game will be played on the grounds at this place next Saturday evening.

It is reported that Lewis Cook says he will not answer the contest pleadings filed against him.

Fiscal court met Monday and is now in session. All the Justices are present and working like beavers.

Reubin Anderson of Burdine a reputable citizen of that section of the county was here on business the first of the week.

The Educational Board for our county has been in session this week transacting much important business for the county.

Attorney D. D. Fields left Tuesday for French Lick Springs, Indiana. He will be away some two or three weeks.

Charlie Hall Jr., of Norton arrived here Sunday and left Monday morning for his home accompanied by his wife and children.

Walter Boggs who has been employed on the Eagle has been very sick for a few days and left for his home at Eolia yesterday.

The hill-sides are almost as in mid-August and a fellow begins to feel a desire for the swimmin' hole creepin' down his spine.

Circuit Court closed Saturday evening after two weeks of close continuous work. A great amount of work was crowded into the term.

Sam Collins has filed contest proceedings against Louis Cook the late Primary nominee for Sheriff. No other contests have yet been reported.

Reports from the country state that young garden "truck" was very much injured by the freeze and frost Saturday and Sunday nights.

Many of our correspondents have awoke from their slumbers this week. We hope these with the rest will be on time next week.

Harlan county did send a lot of people to Whitesburg and we were glad to form acquaintances with them, most all of whom left something for the Eagle.

Eld R.H. Fields of Dongola is now at French Lick Springs, Ind., where he will be for two or three weeks taking medical treatment for rheumatism.

Henry Baker, Ewens Cook and John L. Bentley all excellent citizens of the upper Rockhouse section were transacting business in town Wednesday.

We will accept no more subscriptions on time. The after-while paymaster is too long between drams to suit the man who has to have cash or stop the plow.

There will be but little fruit in Letcher county this year. Whether it was killed by the late freezes or got nipped on account of such an open winter is not known, but however there will be but little fruit.

Read "The Editor's Dog" in this issue on front page and don't cuss and say we have no business in printing such matter. The article is written and printed for the amusement of our readers only and does not purport to be true.

I might beat a man in New York out of a few cents if I could but I would be ashamed to filch a single cent from one of my own county citizens. Yet there are those who have read the Eagle a whole year and "pass by on the other side."

There are excellent prospects for a 10 per cent. raise on all taxable property in Letcher county by the State Board of Equalizers and something ought to be done to prevent it. Taxes are already high enough without tacking on 10 per cent. more.

Did you know that three-fourths of the tax payers and voters of Letcher county are actually paid-up subscribers to the Eagle? Its a fact and the rest will enlist soon. The drags and dead-beats, if there be any are not subscribers but we would like to have them "sorter" for filling.

From now on till July the industrious farmer will "make hay while the sun shines" and the "sack carrier will kerflumix" in the shade of the trees and grin like a Billy Possum. Next fall he will be complaining of hard times and unable to pay his subscription. He ought to be disfranchised or go to the post-office and swear that he is to sorry for citizenship.

It is reported that Wilson Sergeant is about to become a candidate for Sheriff.

Rumors of new candidates are floating around and the Eagle "pokes" up his head in anticipation of old fashion fat times. Just come right on gentlemen, we stand ready to wade in gore up to our chin for you! You can have the offices, every blessed one of them. All we want is just a little "pickin'."

To The Fiscal Court AND Educational Board.

The educational cause of Letcher county, under the New School Law, is now almost entirely in the hands of the Educational Board and the Fiscal Court. What these two bodies can do or how they can do it is a problem that perhaps Newton could not solve. When you touch a man's pocket-book you get pretty close to his heart and in your official acts you can do nothing without tapping somebody's pocket-book. True you must not over-burden the already heavily burdened tax-payer any more than you can possibly avoid. In your deliberations remember the toiling farmer out on the hill-side his hrow and back bared to the broiling sun and how he gets his money. No wonder he kicks at every proposition to increase his taxes. The Fiscal Court ought to be just as deliberative, just as careful as the Supreme Court of the United States.

So, whatever you do gentlemen for the public, do it in such a way as far as possible so that it will equally benefit all.

Notice, Students!

The Examination for Common School Diplomas will be held on May 14th, and 15th, 1909. Any and all who pass this examination will be admitted free of tuition to the County High School. Don't fail to take this examination if you anticipate attending high school.

RETURNED HIM PART OF TIP

Action of Independent Westerner Astonished the Visitor from the Effete East.

"Last week," said the man who had just returned from the west, "I had a new experience. The five-cent cigar reigns in the west even among the rich men. It is not that a western man is not willing to pay more than five cents for a cigar, but, apparently, it is because his taste does not discriminate against it, and he thinks five cents is enough to pay for self-indulgence."

"At one of the railway stations I needed the services of a porter for several minutes. He helped me lift my trunks and bags about and rearrange my baggage generally, and I handed him a quarter, saying, 'Get yourself a cigar.' To my amazement he handed me back two silver dimes. 'A five-cent cigar is good enough for me,' he answered, and I was so dumfounded that I put the change back in my pocket, not knowing what else to do with it. Fancy a New York porter returning any portion of a tip!"—N. Y. Times.

HAD ITS ADVANTAGES.

Jefferson D. Thompson, the chairman of the Vanderbilt committee, was criticizing a new motor-car of rather dubious type. "Even the advantages claimed for this car," said Mr. Thompson, "appear dubious to me. Take that vaunted feature, for instance, of excessive lightness." Mr. Thompson smiled. "A young lady," he said, "once showed me proudly a very cheap, very light car that she had just bought. 'Awfully light, isn't it?' said I. 'Yes,' said she. 'Isn't it splendid! Whenever it breaks down we can always push it home.'"

THE CHRISTIAN WORLD

SEVENTY-SIX YEARS YOUNG.

Rev. Dr. Henson, Says Most of Life is Ahead of Him.

Rev. P. S. Henson, D. D., pastor of Tremont temple, Boston, has just celebrated the 76th anniversary of his birth. Asked what he thought of life at 76 he said:

"O, most of my life is ahead of me, assuredly, for I hope to live forever," he returned with enthusiasm. "The Scriptures say, you know, that the young men shall see visions and the old men shall dream dreams, but a dream is made up of bits of the past, a crazy quilt of experience, so if a man is old he should become retrospective, and I haven't time for that. When a man lives in the past, he is an old man, no matter what the calendar says, and in the same way, when he lives in the present and future, he is still young."

"Whether a man is young or old, depends, too, on whether he has or has not lost his zest. I have seen some men who in their teens were sated with all that life had to offer them. They had squeezed the orange dry. I don't care how the registry of births may have recorded them, they were old men. But a man whose zest is keen as a boy's is young, however many years he may have lived. That is my experience. I never loved life with keener zest than I do to-day, and never felt greater fervor in humanity and all that concerns it."

"To-day is my 76th birthday, and I shall spend it as I spend every other day, driving. In a carriage, did you say? No, not exactly. I used the term figuratively. Driving my brain, perhaps I should have said. Many a night my wife comes to my study at two or three in the morning and asks if I realize the time. I reply, 'No, and I don't care what time it is. My brain is full of thoughts that I must blow off or I shall blow up.' Yet I never force myself beyond the mark. The first essential of a preacher's work is freshness, and a man can't be fresh if his brain is tired out. Henry Ward Beecher never said a truer thing than when he answered the question: 'How is it that you always manage to say something to wake the people up?' and he replied: 'I don't know unless it is by sleeping so much myself.' Yes, sleep is the great remedy, but in my case it is five hours one night and perhaps nine the next, so I should hardly be an example to follow."

"It is good to have 76 years to look back on," said Dr. Henson, in closing, "but it is better to have 176 ahead."

NATIVE INDIAN'S TESTIMONY.
What Christianity Has Accomplished for That Land.

The many noble deeds of philanthropy and self-denying benevolence which Christian missionaries have performed in India, and the various intellectual, social and moral improvements which they have effected, need no flattering comment; they are treasured in the gratitude of the nation, and can never be forgotten or denied. That India is highly indebted to these large-hearted followers of Christ for her present prosperity, I have no doubt the entire nation will gratefully acknowledge.

The missionaries have brought unto us Christ. They have given us the high code of Christian ethics, and their teaching and example have secretly influenced and won thousands of non-Christian Hindus.

The spirit of Christianity has already pervaded the whole atmosphere of Indian society, and we breathe, think, feel, and move in a Christian atmosphere. Native society is being aroused, enlightened and reformed under the influence of Christian education.

BABU KESHUB CHUNDER SEN.

To Teach Ministers Sociology.
The Presbyterian department of Church and Labor will attempt a new method for training ministers in applied Christianity. It is said that in spite of the training received in theological seminaries, thousands of ministers in the cities have not been adequately prepared for their work. The seminary faculties insist that this lack of preparation is due to changing social conditions. It is planned to meet the needs of these men through a correspondence course in sociology, having special reference to the peculiar conditions in their local fields, so that they may deal with them in an up-to-date manner. So-called city missionary work will be reduced to a science, so that hereafter ministers will be relieved from the embarrassment of a blundering experiment.

Work of Native Mission Society.
The report of the National India Missionary society, which has just been issued, is very encouraging. Organized Christmas, 1905, with the purpose of enlisting the native Christians in aggressive Christian work for their countrymen, it has established over 100 branches in the Punjab, United Provinces and South India, started a magazine, collected funds, and begun work in the Montgomery district in the Punjab. There have been 29 candidates for service, two of whom were women. The first man to represent the society as a missionary is Mr. James Williams, who is described as having "strong sympathy, great earnestness, and the gift of imparting knowledge and enthusiasm to others."

And the woman who looks as though she had a secret sorrow is always interesting—until she begins to turn it loose.—Chicago Daily News.

WOULD HAVE READERS PAUSE

Frenchman Has Idea That More Punctuation Marks Could Be Employed with Profit.

While some language masters are discussing the propriety of abolishing several of our punctuation marks and in direct opposition to the practice of omitting these characters entirely in print, says the Temps, Prof. Leon Riequier of the Ecole Normale de la Seine, says that it is high time that a new punctuation mark be added to those now in use. He says, further, that he has given the matter years of consideration and study, and has come to the conclusion that an inverted comma terminating in "a fat dot" should be used. The professor adds that we read too much and too rapidly. The mind has no time, he says, "to pause and digest what has been read, and this is due to the fact that the punctuation is imperfect." The reformer intended at first to introduce a long and "emphatic" hyphen, but thought that the size might be considered "brutal." Prof. Riequier's punctuation scheme has been placed for consideration in the hands of the Academy of Sciences.

OFF HIS MIND.

"My dear," said Mr. Smith to his wife one morning as he was starting for the office, "you mustn't expect me home very early to-night, as I will have to dictate 26 letters."

"All right," was the response, "but I wish you wouldn't work so hard."

He left his office at the usual hour and went to the club and sat down at the card table with three others.

"Just a moment, you fellows, before we deal the cards. I've got to keep my word with my wife. One of you must take down what I dictate: 'A, b, c, d, e, f, g, h, i, j, k, l, m, n, o, p, q, r, s, t, u, v, w, x, y, z.' There, those letters are off my mind."

CONSIDERATE.

During the recent tuberculosis congress in Washington one of the German delegates visited the naval hospital. He was shown over the institution and duly admired its modern arrangement and conveniences. When leaving he inquired as to a large building close to the hospital and seeming to form a part of it. He was told that it was the brewery.

"Ah," he said, "you Americans think of everything."—Harper's Weekly.

WORK DOES IT.

"Contentment is not a good thing," said Mrs. Wilkins Freeman, at a dinner in New York. "No contentment, but dissatisfaction, is what causes progress in the world." She smiled.

"If we look for the contented man," she said, "we will usually find him asleep when he ought to be at work."

INFORMATION.

"I have often heard," said the inquisitive foreigner, "of your—aw—'race issue.' May I ask what a race issue is?"

"Why, cert. It's my sportin' paper," answered the native.

"Aw—thanks," rejoined the foreigner, jotting it down in his notebook.

MADE CLEAR.

Bacon—So you have been to Paris?
Egbert—Yes.
"Could you understand the people over there?"
"Well, they always succeeded in making themselves understood when there was a hotel bill due."—Yonkers Statesman.

FACTS IN THE CASE

"There goes the village poet."
"Ah, I suppose that bundle under his arm is manuscript."
"You may suppose so, but as a matter of fact that bundle contains a quart of liquor which he purchased of the village 'blind tiger.'"—Birmingham Age-Herald.

WHAT DOES HE CATCH?

"When a married man goes for a trape in late in the morning he misses it," remarked the Observer of Events and Things; "but when he goes home later at night he usually catches it."—Yonkers Statesman.

SMALL ARMY.

"I have about made up my mind to give the army a bath," announced the commander of a South American fighting force.

"A good idea," said the representative of an American manufacturer. "How many tubs do you need?"
"One will do."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

THE STANDARD ROTARY

Shuttle Sewing Machine

Is the best for general use because it will do more kinds of work, and do it better, quicker and more easily than any other machine made. It is the only machine that makes either the two-thread lock-stitch or the single-thread chain-stitch perfectly on the same machine.

It is the fastest sewer, making 175 stitches while others make 100. You can do your sewing in one-third less time.

It runs decidedly easier and far more quiet than is possible with any other style shuttle. It requires only two movements of the treadle to three on other machines in sewing the same length seam; one-third less foot work. The Ideal Standard Rotary sewing mechanism and ball bearings make it wear twice as long as old style machines.

By greater usefulness, and understanding for 24 years, it has proven its Superiority and Supremacy.

The Standard Rotary will surprise and delight you. The artistic design and elegant finish will surely please you. See it TODAY. You are welcome, whether you buy or not.

This rifle is built for settled districts, where good range and killing power are desired, with safety to the neighborhood.

The Marlin .25-20 is a light, quick-handling, finely-balanced repeater, with the solid top, closed-in breech and side ejection features which make Marlin guns safe and agreeable to use and certain in action.

It is made to use the powerful new high velocity smokeless loads, with jacketed bullets as well as the well-known black powder and low pressure smokeless cartridges, and is the ideal rifle for target work, for woodchucks, geese, hawks, foxes, etc., up to 300 yards.

This rifle and ammunition, and all other Marlin repeaters, are fully described in our 12-page catalogue. Free for 3 stamps postage.

Catarrh Cannot Be Cured by LOCAL APPLICATION, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure is not a quick medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing Catarrh. Send for testimonials free.
